Rossview High School Recognized by Balfour for Yearbook Excellence

DALLAS (special) — The Rossview High School yearbook staff has been recognized by Balfour Yearbooks with the Featured recognition for its outstanding contribution to scholastic journalism. The Rossview High School yearbook is featured in Balfour's 2020 Yearbook Yearbook. The yearbook adviser is Pollyanna Parker.

"Congratulations on creating a book that documents the history of your school while telling the unique stories of your students," Mark Goshgarian, General Manager of Publishing and Digital Assets said. "Your inclusion in this 34th edition of The Yearbook Yearbook allows your outstanding work to serve as inspiration for staffs across the nation."

Yearbooks published by Balfour for the 2018-19 school year were evaluated in one or more of the following areas: theme development, layout design, photo content, secondary packages and cover design. The 2020 Yearbook Yearbook showcases 2019 yearbooks. Rossview High School's inclusion in the 2020 Yearbook Yearbook reflects their commitment to journalism excellence and creativity. Balfour honors fewer than 5 percent of yearbook staffs with this distinction.
